

Lent 2021 Spiritus Christi Church

Healing the Hurts that Bind Us

A Five Part series exploring inner and outer healing so that we and our world may be more free. Tuesdays during Lent from 7 – 9pm EST

February 23 – Preparing to Engage –Reflections on this liturgical season as we prepare ourselves for the journey (Facilitated by Mike Boucher and Kristen Walker)

March 2 – Healing Haunted Histories – Reflections on how our faith calls us to work to heal the inward and outward wounds of settler colonialism, white supremacy and Indigenous displacement. With special guests Ched Myers and Elaine Enns. Check out their new book on this very topic at <https://healinghauntedhistories.org/>

March 9 – Healing Personal Pain –Reflections on how to heal from and transform personal loss and pain. With special guest Alphonsine Imaniraguha Anderson (former Rochester resident and Rwandan genocide survivor). You can learn more about Alphonsine at <https://alphonsineanderson.com/>

March 16 – Addressing Collective Hurt – How do we think about addressing pain at a collective level with special guest Dr. Khuram Hussain (Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Hobart and William Smith College). For his faculty biography , please see <https://www2.hws.edu/academics/education/faculty/faculty-biography/?facultyID=171>

March 23 – Moving Through a Hurting World – A Spirituality for COVID 19 with special guest Edwina Gateley. For more on writer, theologian and minister, Edwina Gateley, go to <https://www.edwinagateley.com/>

All programs will take place via Zoom with the link available through the Spiritus Christi web page. For more information or questions, please contact Mike Boucher at wordandworldroch@gmail.com